I-4: Instruction – Intervention – Inclusion – Innovation
Dual Certification Program of Study
Summer Entrance

Summer
On Campus

This semester is focused on understanding and working with students who have reading difficulties.

Scholars will be involved in a Practicum experience consisting of Tier 3 instruction and literacy intervention with struggling readers.

- EEX 6125 Intervention for Language and Learning Disabilities (3 credits)
- EEX 6219 Reading Assessment and Intervention for Students with Disabilities (3 credits)
- EEX 6841 Practicum (3 credits)

Fall
May be done locally or in a distant placement.

This semester has a dual focus. One area of focus is knowledge of special education issues and processes. The second focus is on the learner (i.e. knowing student needs; designing instruction appropriate for each student) as well as knowing the learning context. Scholars will have an Internship placement in an assigned public school where they are involved in Tier 2 and Tier 3 instruction.

Scholars will conduct a study of the school where they are assigned and a child/context study in which they examine learner characteristics and meeting learner needs within their classroom/school setting.

- EEX 6053 Foundations in Special Education (3 credits)
- EEX 6233 Designing Instruction for Inclusive Classrooms (3 credits)
- EEX 6661 Teaching and Managing Behavior for Student Learning (3 credits)
- EEX 6863 Supervised Practice in Special Education (Internship 1) (6 credits)

Spring
May be done locally or in a distant placement

During this semester, scholars are involved in Tier 1, Tier 2, and Tier 3 instruction in their assigned internship placement and focus on their development as teachers and fulfilling the role of a teacher within their school setting.

Scholars will conduct a teacher study in which they examine issues pertinent to their professional practice within their internship placement.

- EEX 6936 Mathematics & Writing Instruction for Struggling Learners (3 credits)
- EEX 6786 Collaborative Practice in Inclusive Schools (3 credits)
- EEX 6863 Supervised Practice in Special Education (Internship 2) (6 credits)
