ESOL Documentation

Students expecting to earn an educational leadership degree which leads to Florida principal certification are required to complete an ESOL training requirement. This can be done using one of three options: 1) by already having completed a three (3) credit hour survey course in ESOL in past coursework; or 2) completion of sixty (60) hours of ESOL district in-service education; or 3) completing a UF survey course (TSL 6700) which is offered each summer semester. Attach documentation to this program plan if the requirement has been met under option 1 or 2.

FELE Examination and Comprehensive Final

Students enrolled in the M.Ed. Educational Leadership program, a state-approved and NCATE (National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education) program, must provide passing scores for all pertinent sections of the Florida Educational Leadership Examination (FELE) prior to graduation from the program. Documentation should be sent to the University of Florida (Institution Code: 5812) and to the department at least 60 days prior to graduation date. The FELE Examination serves as a UF comprehensive final for the M.Ed. degree.
