

EXPLORE THE possibilities

Student Personnel in Higher Education
On-Campus M.Ed.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

The UF SPHE program prepares you to take on leadership roles in student affairs divisions in any higher education setting.

By integrating academic coursework with professional work experiences, you're able to put theory into action as a scholar-practitioner, while growing your connections and building relationships across the Gator Nation.

Did you know that more scholarships are offered through the College of Education than any other college at UF?

Program Overview

- Full-time, 2 years
- 33 credit hours of core classes
- 3 credit hours of supervised practicum
- Student affairs-related Graduate Assistantships
- Summer internship experience
- Lock-step cohort model, beginning each fall
- Aligns with Council for the Advancement of Standards in Higher Education
- No GRE required

Start your student affairs journey at UF!

