

TAPS 22A173ESSER II RFA/Technology Assistance*Project Narrative

Funds from this allocation will be used to replace failing school-issued student Chromebooks used to support distance learning as needed due to covid-19 illness and/or quarantine while also providing personalized, educational support during face-to-face instruction. School-issued, individual student Chromebooks are essential to supporting regular and substantial interaction between the learners and teachers.