

University of Florida – Scope of Work

Justin Ortagus, Ph.D., will serve as the Principal Investigator (PI) and point of contact for the subcontract at the University of Florida, but he will serve as the Co-PI on the overall project focused on “HBCU Enrollment and Longer-Term Outcomes.” He will meet regularly with the project team to review progress and develop analytic strategies. He will also contribute equally to the production of the resulting academic paper.
