

University of Florida
College of Education
Senate Apportionment Policy

Approved March 24, 2025

College of Education Senators shall be apportioned to the University Senate following University Senate policies. Within the College of Education's allotted senators, two senators will be elected from PK Yonge Developmental Research School.