

Intergovernmental Personnel Act

This mobility assignment is mutually beneficial and will benefit the University of Florida (UF) by providing hands on experience with federal systems, data and research protocols. This assignment benefits Veterans Administration (VA) by providing potential candidates for research investigators and broadens cooperative research in the field of rehabilitation between UF and VA.