

Florida Safe Routes to School Non-Infrastructure Program

Safety transportation programs for young children (K-5) teach pedestrian and bicycle safety. The safety programs include behavioral knowledge on how children can exercise basic safety as a pedestrian (K-2) and on bicycles (3-5). This grant is evaluating the safety programs as they currently exist in Florida's elementary schools with an emphasis on student learning.