

Children's Forum Courses

The University of Florida Lastinger Center will provide online and face-to-face professional development courses related to Early Learning Florida. The Children's Forum will select and assign practitioners to these courses, which will be facilitated by a certified Lastinger instructor.