

State Child Care Administrators Network

The University of Florida shall complete the following tasks for the State Child Care Administrators Network (SCCAN) project: (a) design and develop a Needs Assessment Tool for use by SCCAN members to use state program data to evaluate the effectiveness of their programs, design performance measures, and track their progress toward defined outcomes; (b) propose content for the SCCAN website, including but not limited to pertinent research, articles, links, tools, and professional development content; (c) be available as needed by the SCCAN board to provide collaboration within areas of knowledge and expertise; and (d) comply with all applicable state and federal laws and regulations.