

Embedded Instruction California Project Year 4

The Anita Zucker Center for Excellence in Early Childhood Studies (AZ CEECS) at the University of Florida will conduct professional development, technical assistance, implementation support, and internal evaluation activities associated with the Embedded Instruction California (EI-CA) project from July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019. Listed below is a summary of the major activities to be conducted during this project period.

- On-board New Grantees and Support Continuing Grantees
- Administrative Supports
- Implementation Support and Technical Assistance: Bridge Year Administrative Planning
- Professional Development: Coach Training and Supports
- Professional Development: Professional Learning Communities (PLC)
- Professional Development: Teacher Training
- Website
- Conference Presentations
- Internal Evaluation and Reports