

University of Florida
Anita Zucker Center for Excellence in Early Childhood Studies
Embedded Instruction California Year 6

The Anita Zucker Center for Excellence in Early Childhood Studies (AZCEECS) at the University of Florida will conduct professional development, technical assistance, implementation support, and internal evaluation activities associated with the Embedded Instruction for Early Learning California (EI-CA) project from July 1, 2020 through June 30, 2021. Listed below are a summary of the major activities to be conducted during this project period.

1. Support Existing Grantees and Onboard Additional Participants.
2. Provide Administrative Supports.
3. Bridge Year Implementation or Sustainability and Scale-Up Support and Technical Assistance: Bridge Year Administrative Planning.
4. Implement Administrator Orientation Training.
5. Lead Implementation and Statewide Coach Trainer-of-Trainers Workshop.
6. Co-Facilitate Professional Development: Coach Training and Supports.
7. Co-Facilitate Professional Development: Teacher Training on Embedded Instruction for Early Learning.
8. Update Website.
9. Support Dissemination Efforts for Conference Presentations.
10. Scale-Up Collaborative Planning Meetings with Desired Results Access Project Staff.
11. Complete Internal Evaluation and Reports.