

UF COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES ACADEMIC ADVISING CENTER

Pre-Health Academic Advising Graduate Assistant

The particular assistantship will be dedicated to working specifically with the following populations: current UF pre-health students as well as students admitted to the UF Pre-Health Post-bac Program (PHPB). PHPB offers dedicated and motivated students an opportunity to complete academic pre-requisite courses for admission to allopathic medicine, osteopathic medicine, dentistry, and other healthcare professional graduate programs. General responsibilities for this position include advising pre-health students regarding competitive applicant criteria, assisting with teaching courses and leading workshops, attending recruitment events, and assisting with managing related social media accounts.

Extensive training will be provided.

CLAS is the largest college on campus, with more than 700 faculty members responsible for teaching the majority of the university's core curriculum courses to at least 35,000 students each year. CLAS has more than 12,000 undergraduate students pursuing a variety of disciplines through its 42 majors and 42 minors.

In addition to being admitted to the UF Graduate School, you must be able to work both Fall and Spring semesters in order to fulfill the 0.5 FTE (20 hour/week), nine-month appointment. This position includes a tuition fee waiver for nine (9) credit hours/semester during the Fall 2014 and Spring 2015 semesters. Tuition for the specified number of credit hours for each term will be paid, but the student is responsible for the fees associated with each credit. The current annual rate of pay for this 9 month appointment is $11,000.
