

"International Engagement and Career Growth"

Wednesday, Nov. 16, 2011 at 2pm
Reitz Union – Room 282 Lecture Hall

International Education Week 2011
"Many Nations: One Gator Nation"

Celebrate International Education Week !

For a detailed calendar of IEW events visit

www.ufic.ufl.edu/pd/IEW.html

Join us during this panel featuring Fulbright Awardees and other internationally engaged faculty from the College of Education. Panelists will share their motivations while adding international components to their work, and reflect on the benefits and challenges they have faced throughout their careers.

Panelists:

Dr. Cathy Cavanaugh, Associate Professor, Educational Technology School of Teaching and Learning

Dr. Linda Jones, Associate Professor, Science Education, School of Teaching and Learning

Dr. Pilar Mendoza, Assistant Professor in Higher Education Administration, School of Human Development and Organizational Studies in Education

Dr. Diane Ryndak, Professor, School of Special Education, School Psychology and Early Childhood Studies

Moderator:

Dr. David Sammons, Dean of UF International Center

Sponsored by:

