

Stomp the Swamp for Autism is an annual fitness event benefiting UF Center for Autism and Related Disabilities. This year, the 7th annual Stomp the Swamp for Autism will be held on Saturday, February 7, 2015 at 10 am at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. The event will feature LIVE entertainment from KISS 105.3 and various UF organizations and community groups, student athletes, as well as free breakfast, the chance to win many raffle and race prizes including gym memberships, gift cards and more! There will also be an awesome t-shirt for everyone who registers by January 31st. Participants will either run or walk the stadium inner loop, or run stadiums. All kids 12 and under participate for free in a specialized obstacle course just for them. It's great fun for all fitness levels and abilities! You can register as an individual, as a "Team" of friends, or with your student organization. All teams will be recognized for their support of those with autism in our community, and the largest team will win a prize! PRE-REGISTER online by January 31st to receive a T-Shirt AND save money at
