

Student Hourly Position

Seeking one UF student to conduct duties related to an early intervention research study. Duties include: data collection via video recording in naturalistic environments and data organization and entry. Experience with early childhood intervention programs and/or home visiting services desired. Ideal candidate(s) will have:

- Exceptional organizational and interpersonal skills,
- Ability to understand and follow complex, detailed technical instructions,
- Ability to operate hand held video equipment and process video using various software

Travel within Alachua County area required. The position is approximately 5-10 hours/week. Compensation will depend on experience. The position will begin Spring 2015 semester.

If interested please send current CV or resume to Dr. Helena Mawdsley at hmawdsley@coe.ufl.edu.