

Kindergarten teaching position (full time)

Boulware Springs Charter School is seeking a highly-qualified Kindergarten classroom teacher. The position is available immediately. Responsibilities include managing a classroom of students, creating and implementing innovative and rigorous lesson plans, monitoring student progress, using data driven instruction to adjust to student learning, teaching character education, creating a warm environment, and working as a team member throughout the school.

Qualified applicants will have:

- an elementary teaching certificate (or be eligible to receive one)
- the ability to manage a classroom with warmth and fairness
- a sense of humor
- the ability to work cooperatively on a team
- flexibility and a willingness to “jump in” when needed

Salary:

- a prorated salary based on an annual salary of $48,600 (the school year has already started so total salary will reflect start date)
- a 2% contribution to an IRA in your name

For more information, please visit www.boulwarecharter.com. To apply, please email Megan at meganlane@boulwarecharter.com and include your name, contact information, a resume, and a cover letter explaining your qualifications and why you think Boulware would be a good fit for you. This position is available immediately and must be filled, so please ensure timely response to guarantee consideration.