

Students for Anti-Bullying Initiatives (SABI) is a new organization at UF focused on bringing awareness to the issues of bullying at the K-12 and college level, in addition to cyberbullying. Currently, we are looking for dedicated individuals to apply for our leadership team. The positions available are Chief Publication Manager, 2 assistant publication managers, and one assistant fundraising manager. The application process can be found on our Facebook page

(facebook.com/studentsforantibullyinginitiatives) and on our Gator Connect page at

<https://ufl.collegiatelink.net/organization/studentsforantibullyinginitiatives>.

Applications are due by April 8, 2016 at 11:59 PM. For more information, email SABI at sabiantibullying@gmail.com or SABI president Bryan Boggiano at bboggiano1@ufl.edu.

