

THIS IS NOT YOUR ORDINARY CLASSROOM.

Experience the rewards of working for Upward Bound!

Santa Fe College's Upward Bound program prepares students for college in grades 9-12 at Bradford High School in Bradford County and Newberry High School in Alachua County.

We are hiring dedicated people who can teach and tutor in Math, Science (Biology or Chemistry), Language Arts, English, Spanish, and Test Prep. Teachers will provide supplemental instruction in their area of expertise and should have strong teaching skills, demonstrated understanding of the needs of youth, ability to respond to student learning needs with innovative ideas and approaches to instruction, and excellent interpersonal skills. Tutors will provide academic tutoring and supervision of students to assigned groups of students in collaboration with the teachers.

Teachers must have:

Bachelor's degree in academic discipline with certification and teaching experience

Tutors must have:

Bachelor's degree

Currently we are recruiting teachers and tutors for the following locations + days/times:

- Santa Fe College – Saturdays (March 19; April 9, 23; May 7, 21) 9am-1pm
- Bradford High School – Mondays/Wednesdays 3:10-5:10pm
- Newberry High School – Tuesdays/Thursdays 2:50-4:50pm

Our pay rate is $15/hr for tutors and $17/hr for teachers ***

To apply, email your resume and cover letter to UBSF@sfccollege.edu along with a Santa Fe job application (found at <http://www.sfccollege.edu/hr/jobs/>)

