

The Student Alliance of Graduate Students in Education
(SAGE) Presents

The Evolution of a Research Study

Are you hoping to begin a research project and are unsure how or where to begin?

Do you have interesting ideas or topics you would like to explore but are unsure how to develop them into a research study?

Join SAGE for a panel discussion about how to develop your questions and wonderings into research studies/projects. ☺

11:00am- 12:00pm

Wednesday

Feb. 15

Norman 2337

Featured Panelists

- Dr. James McLeskey, Professor
  - School of Special Education, School Psychology, and Early Childhood Studies
- Dr. Maria Coady, Associate Professor
  - ESOL/Bilingual Education, School of Teaching and Learning
- Stephanie Schroeder, Doctoral Candidate
  - Curriculum, Teaching and Teacher Education, School of Teaching and Learning
- Jungyoung Park, Doctoral Student
  - Language and Literacy Education, School of Teaching and Learning

Light refreshment will be provided. ☺

Check our FB page for more:
<https://www.facebook.com/groups/COESAGE/>

