

UF College of Education
2018 Outstanding Graduate
Leadership Award
Nomination Application

To be presented at the 2018 COE Recognition Dinner, April 20, 6:00pm, UF Hilton.

Name of Nominated Student: _____

Student's Phone Number: _____ Email: _____

Nominator's Name: _____

Nominator's Phone Number: _____ Email: _____

NOMINATIONS ARE DUE BY 5:00 P.M. ON MONDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2018 to the COE Office of Student Services, by emailing them to Aaron Ganas, aganas@coe.ufl.edu

Application/Nomination Items:

- Nominations will be open to all COE graduate students who have been enrolled for the past two of the last three terms (Summer 2017, Fall 2017, Spring 2018) at the UF College of Education
- No self-nominations will be accepted
- Letters of nomination must originate with a faculty member affiliated with the COE
- The applicant/nominee's resume must be included with the application/nomination
- Faculty should submit a one-page letter of nomination, including the title of the award, that pertains to the criteria below
- A maximum of two additional letters of support (one page each) will be accepted and may come from COE or other UF faculty

Criteria:

A maximum total of 30 points will be accrued, based on:

- ❖ (1-15 Points) for evidence of service and leadership to the college, university and community (i.e., participation, membership and leadership in community activities, collegiate clubs, societies, etc.)
- ❖ (1-10 Points) for evidence of professional preparation and readiness, based on best practices, assessment and other skills linked to professional preparation
- ❖ (1-5 Points) for scholarship, based on GPA